After an All-American four-year career at Embry-Riddle, Jordan Holcomb joined the Eagle coaching staff as a graduate assistant coach in 2013. Holcomb came to ERAU after graduating from Warner Christian Academy and made an immediate impact, earning The Sun Conference Newcomer of the Year award in 2009.

As a sophomore, Holcomb was named to the All-Conference team after leading the league with 62 service aces and ranking third with 358 kills.

As a junior, Holcomb earned All-Conference accolades again after leading the league in service aces (59) for the second straight season.

In 2012, Holcomb capped her career by earning The Sun Conference Player of the Year honors in addition to another first team All-Conference selection and a spot on the Tachikara-NAIA All-America first team. She played in every set in 2012, compiling 474 kills, 387 digs, 94 blocks and 47 service aces.

In the spring of 2014, Holcomb signed with Asklo Linz-Steg, a professional club that competes in the Middle European League, becoming the first Eagle alum to sign a professional volleyball contract.
